

EES, the decedent of colonial Germany, was born and raised in Namibia & has already won the MTV Africa Award, got nominated at Kora (African Grammy) for best Album in Africa and now connects two continents with culture, fashion and music. With a following of over a quarter million on social media – EES is ready to bring back the realness in music.

This is the biggest single of his upcoming Album, the music video has various hidden codes to a treasure hunt for the fans - to win 1 bitcoin. Of which 75% the winner receives who cracks the codes first & 25% going to a charity in Africa. The high-end animation video & promo has all been produced independently - which no major label backing, just a young team that want to change the game and push more positive & authentic music vibes.

EES has signed with the big PR Agency "Macheete GmbH" in Berlin who are covering a full press release for the single & "Game Changer" album for 5 months starting 1 July.

Our TV Promotion is also on the go with 712 TV Promotions GmbH and the Digital Agency "Yoca Online" will be doing all Social Media Ads and promotions for 3 months starting 23rd July.

There have been some Newspaper and online articles already published in Germany about the upcoming release. Through our various Agency partners, we have a good outcome to get press via Bild.de (Germany's biggest media house) and are in talks with ProSieben and RTL for live TV shows with the single and Album release at the moment.
