

KOMFORTRAUSCHEN

BAND BIO

Du betrittst den Raum. Dunkelheit, Nebel, schweißgetränkte heiße Luft. Du suchst dir den Weg durch den Keller-Club. Blitze, Strobo, keine klare Sicht. Ein tiefer Sinuston schiebt alles weg. Ein mieser Rhythmus peitscht dir ins Gesicht. Dirty. Weiße Klamotten. Fuck, da steht ja eine Band auf der Bühne! Der Einsatz der Bass-Drum bringt alle zum Ausrasten. Sofort wirst du Teil der Maschine, die von Komfortrauschen angetrieben wird. Drei präzisionsbesessene Kontrollfreaks, die ihr Handwerk bis zur Industrienorm verfeinert haben. Ein kompromissloser Sound, zusammengeschweißt aus treibendem Schlagzeug, tiefen monotonen Basslinien und einer Gitarre, die sich wie Säure durch deinen Gehörgang frisst. Die drei wandeln ihre mechanische Energie in einen ausgelassenen Techno-Sound um, dem man nicht widerstehen kann. Aber Achtung: Es gibt keinen Not-Aus-Schalter!

Komfortrauschen ist eine Live-Band aus Berlin, die auf innovative Art und Weise mit traditionellen Instrumenten den kraftvollen Sound eines Techno-DJ-Sets erzeugt. Man stelle sich vor: eine Punkband gefangen in einem Drum-Computer, The Prodigy als Berghain-Resident, Richie Hawtin meets Rammstein. Die pure Ekstase und maschinelle Genauigkeit von Techno, angereichert mit der frischen Energie und Verspieltheit einer Live-Band.

Komfortrauschen spielen regelmäßig in namhaften Clubs wie dem Sisyphos, der Kantine am Berghain und dem Kater Blau, auf unzähligen Festivals in Deutschland sowie in ganz Europa und darüber hinaus. Jetzt sind sie drauf und dran, die Clubs und Bühnen der ganzen Welt zu erobern!

BAND BIO ENGLISH

Step into the darkness. Can you taste the sweat-filled air? Can you stand the pressing heat? The driving energy grips you in a deadly embrace. Let the rhythm absorb you, your blood turn to oil. You become part of the machine, the machine that is driven by the motor of Komfortrauschen. Three precision-obsessed control freaks that have honed their craft to a German industrial perfection. An uncompromised sound welded together from propelling drums, deep unrepentant bass lines and a searing guitar that bites through like acid. They convert their mechanical energy into hedonistic live techno that is impossible to resist. Only thing is, there is no emergency stop!

Komfortrauschen is a live band from Berlin that creates the powerful sound of a techno DJ set in their very own analogue fashion with traditional instruments, filtered through an impressive array of pedals and effects.

Imagine a punk band trapped inside a drum computer, the Prodigy being a Berghain resident, Richie Hawtin meets Rammstein. The pure ecstasy and machine accuracy of techno enriched with the fresh energy and playfulness of a live band. Komfortrauschen have played regularly in famous German clubs like Sisyphe, Kantine am Berghain and Kater Blau, on countless festivals in Germany as well as all over Europe and beyond. Now they're about to hit the stages worldwide!
