"Impassioned and brutally cathartic [music] rich in emotion and energy that shows off havoc and harmony in all the right places." - When The Horn Blows

From outset, COLORWAVE was intended as boundless and borderless. Recently called out as one of 5 bands to watch in 2021 by VISIONS Magazine, the Hamburg based band fiercely present bold guitar sounds and brassy lyrics to stir up the resounding defiance of present-day punk. Raw vocals unleash stirring and anarchic energy unhinged from category.

They thump-out in the space between Alternative Rock, Post Hardcore, and Garage Rock; themselves drawn to sounds from Marmozets, Calva Louise, and Royal Blood.

Borderless is value in action: Since forming in 2015, the band have been shaking up the German and Dutch underground scene before spilling over even into the UK.

COLORWAVE is about honesty, about tough love, about sharing experiences. Immersed in the band's all-embracing spirit is where the wildly weird, those wonderfully wicked, and every stormy soul in-between find a home! This message runs its veins through their 2019 debut album NOMADS. The band toured the album throughout Europe, with a mega-milestone opening for Alice Merton at Campusfestival Mittweida, and supporting Boris Pelekh's Hey Guy in Cologne.

In October 2020 COLORWAVE sold out their headline show at Astra Stube in Hamburg/Germany and drew a big crowd at their show at the Weltecho venue in Chemnitz a week later.

While writing new material in 2020, the band caught the attention of Heisskalt lead singer Mathias Bloech who then co-produced the band's latest singles PRESSURE, THIRST and BOUNDARIES (are hard to establish if you've never had any) and later in 2021, together with Van Holzen frontman Florian Kiesling, three more songs which will be released in 2022.

"The powerful song "Jericho, Jericho!" demonstrates how intense this album is. But even on a slow day as described in "Sleep Or Talk", COLORWAVE is everything but boring. The band is definitely a find with this album!"

“HOLY. FUCKING. SHIT
I’M LOST FOR WORDS. JUST LISTEN TO IT.”

“OOF. AM I RIGHT?”

LONDON-BASED COLORWAVE RELEASE THE ABSOLUTELY HUMONGOUS ‘PRESSURE’ TODAY, APPARENTLY THE FIRST IN A TRYPTIC OF SONGS.

DEDICATED TO, "RADICAL ACCEPTANCE AND SELF-AWARENESS, AND BREAKING WITH PERFECTIONISM."

OTHER THAN OBVIOUSLY BEING ABSOLUTELY MASSIVE; THE LYRICS ARE EARNEST, THE VOCAL PERFORMANCE IS SPINE-TINGLING AND THE TRACK ITSELF IS FULL OF LOVELY LITTLE SURPRISES.

A NEW RHYTHMIC FLOURISH HERE, RIFF AFTER RIFF AFTER RIFF THERE...

I DIDN'T BREATHE FROM START TO END.

LET OFF SOME STEAM AND TREAT YOURSELF TO THE MUSICAL EQUIVALENT OF SCREAMING ALONE AT THE SKY.”

COLORWAVE

NEW MUSIC

In May 2020, COLORWAVE went to Studio Valachai in southern Germany to write and record new material. This time they were joined by Heisskalt frontman Mathias Bloech, who already co-produced their latest three singles, and Van Holzen lead singer Florian Kiesling.

Together they spent almost two weeks writing, recording and producing new songs that will be released in 2022.
