

CRISTÓVAM

Cristóvam is a singer-songwriter born amongst the deep blue of the Atlantic and lush green of the beautiful Azores in Portugal. His debut record "Hopes & Dreams" was released in 2018 and since then, he has toured across Europe, sharing stages with artists such as Scott Matthews, Stu Larsen, Tim Hart, among many others. His ability to write and craft songs, has already earned him a 1 first prize at the International Songwriting Competition, 2 'International Portuguese Music Awards' and 1 'Composer of the Year award' at CCP Festival. In 2020, his song 'Andrà Tutto Bene' went viral worldwide. Embraced in many countries as an anthem of resistance to the pandemic, the song and its powerful film had more than 3 million views on YouTube, closing TV newscasts around the world and having radio airplay on more than 400 radios.
