

MARTA DUARTE D'ALMEIDA

Click here for Instagram

Artist Biography

Portuguese singer-songwriter and multi-instrumentalist Marta Duarte d'Almeida calls the world her musical home. Her astonishing instrumentalism and charismatic voice take her audiences into a magical world of jazzy swing and Portuguese folk, and storytelling filled with energy and emotions.

Marta feels the necessity to leave behind the limitations of genre and instrument. She unites her exceptional talent for song-writing, arranging and stage-acting with her unique charm and fierce presence - relishing all the possibilities the world of music has to offer.

Click here for Website

Click here for Spotify

Highlights

With her graduation from Lusíada University in 2018, Marta became the first female jazz guitarist of Portugal. Her single Esmeralda chosen for noted editorial Spotify playlists. Marta's alma mater consequentially invited her as a guest speaker in 2021. In her latest album and show, "Marta and the Boat", her astonishing instrumentalism and charismatic voice take her audiences into a magical world of World Music, Portuguese Folk, Blues, Jazzy Swing, and even Fado, accompanied by storytelling full of energy and emotions.

Click here for Youtube

Click here for full press kit

Reviews

"A very special one-woman tornado of musical and creative energy and musicality, yes really! Marta is really quite remarkable."

Ian Smith, Frusion UK

