ElectroSoul Spirit

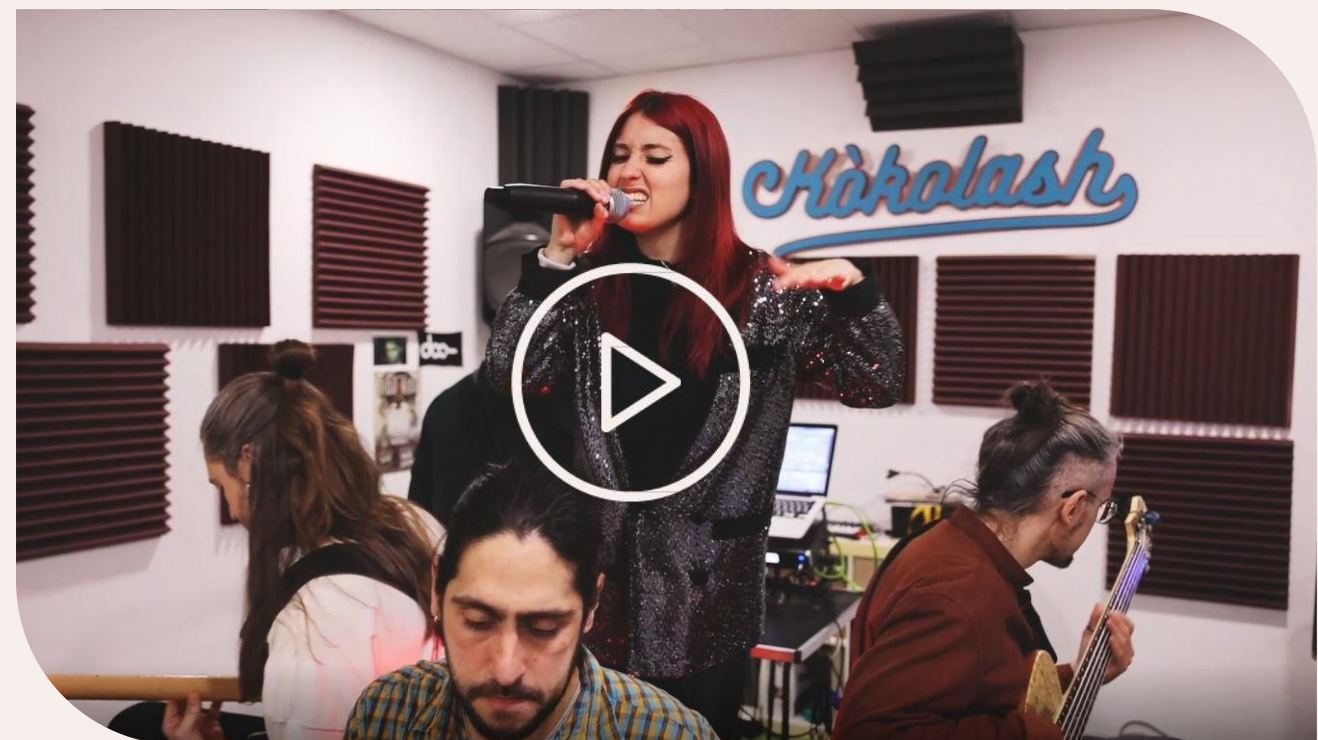

Kòkolash is a new band from Barcelona with roots in black music. Looking into the mirror of HipHop Jazz but exploring new sonic spaces, mixing analogic instruments with electronic atmospheres.

In 2021, Kòkolash launches their first album "Afterall": The creation of a musical universe where Soul, Funk, Jazz and Electronica melt and are reshaped with the help of other artists of the new Barcelona scene.

New Single: It's Up to you

2022 marks a new era for Kòkolash with the incorporation of Mario deFinis in drums and Annie Red as the vocalist and front woman of the band.

Kòkolash will release a new EP by the end of 2022 and now you can listen to the first single: "It's Up to you", a progressive R&B new soul groovy tune where the band makes a step forward into their development and do not hide their influences: going direct from Tom Misch to Daft Punk through Hiatus Kaiyote.
