

Pillars

Formed in 2012, Pillars are smashing their way through the UK's music scene. Having toured the UK since the release of their debut mini album Sinners, they've had an incredible response from the industry. Already Pillars have shared the stage with many great acts such as: Close Your Eyes (USA), Tides Of Man (USA), The Dirty Youth, Bleed From Within, Shields, Napoleon, The Valiant, When We Were Wolves, Astroid Boys, TRC, Confessions Of A Traitor, Exist Immortal, IDIOM, IDivide and so on. Best known for their intense melodies, crushing breakdowns and incredible crowd involvement, Pillars are definitely ones to watch out for in 2015. With set plans for a full feature length album, the future is looking very promising for Pillars.

Pillars Are:

James Burton - Vocals

Matt Young – Guitar

Callum Griffin – Bass Guitar / Vocals

Adam Copeman – Drums / Melodic Vocals

October 2013 saw the release of the bands anticipated debut mini album Sinners, which was released for FREE as a Mp3 download via their website:

After playing Sinners firmly throughout 2014, the recently released single The Immoralist, has seen the bands status on the UK's music scene grow with nothing but praise. In turn, this has managed to attract the interest of many industry experts and companies as well as an expanding social media status. With this in mind, Pillars are now well on the way with writing towards their debut full-length album.

“2014 was a big year for Pillars, with their first UK headline tour, support from BBC introducing for their standout tracks ‘Trails’ ‘Crown Your King’ ‘Place Your Bets’ plus a lot of love for the newest single ‘The Immoralist’.

But we know 2015 will be even bigger, with more headline shows, new tracks, a new album and much more support from us here at BBC Introducing. We can’t wait to get the boys into our studios...Look out for a LOUD BBC Introducing session very soon!”

– James Santer (BBC Introducing)

“One of the brightest hopefuls to continue shining a light on the growing west-country scene to the greater UK”

– Mike James (Mike James Rock Show)

“Great upcoming band, really professional in their approach and a pleasure to work with.” – Hadley Keenan (Advance Promotions)
