

English press text Ana Scent

Press text short:

Ana Scent has been kissed by the muse. For the first time she started writing together with other songwriters and is now so inspired that she wants to produce songs by the meter. She is ready to take off! With a lot of power and feeling, with epic big melodies and relentlessly honest lyrics. Be ready, because the year has just begun and it's just bubbling out of her. With her first new single, "Still Love You," she reveals to us what is probably the most painful story of her life so far. She stays true to her sound; gripping synthpop with a touch of 80ies.

Press text medium:

Ana Scent. Her voice surrounds you like a fragrance, taking you on a musical journey; your heart beats faster, feels with you, lets you take off with ease and yet grips you with a depth that makes you shudder. Packed with great melodies, Ana Scent's relentlessly honest lyrics wish for that profundity that everyday life often leaves missing.

Ana Scent has performed on stage with PEGASUS and LEVIN and sang background vocals for them and other Swiss artists in the studio. With her band she supported THE SLOW SHOW, LEMAITRE, Y'AKOTO, BASTIAN BAKER, YOKKO, JAMES GRUNTZ and THE JAPANESE HOUSE. Now the strong front woman herself will conquer the Swiss radio and stage landscape. On her first EP `YOU` and her debut album INFINITY she shines with her vocal skills and at the same time profiles herself as a doer on all levels of music production. For her new songs she has taken a breath of fresh air; with none other than the successful Zurich producer Lars Christen aka bonboi.
