

BIRD'S VIEW

What is Rock 'n' Roll?

Playing loud? Drinking too much? Too many pills? Late nights and changing the world and trashed hotel rooms? Protests, parties, blown amps, wild gigs and ruining the neighborhood?

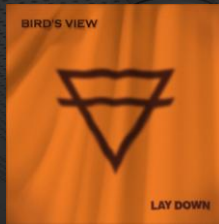

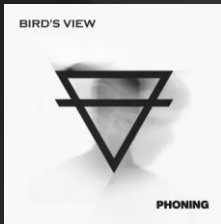

Who knows. But Bird's View sound like rock'n'roll. Having re-formed with a new line-up in 2019, the German four-piece know only one direction: forward.

20-23 years old and just getting started, they've already won prestigious prizes (German Rock & Pop Award 2019, JBL Back to Stage, etc.) and shared stages with some big names in the music scene like Skid Row and Soulfly.

With their debut album RED LIGHT HABITS full of loud, catchy, riff-driven music released on May 19th 2023 @ Drakkar/Soulfood, Bird's View are the ones to watch - you might just learn something about rock 'n' roll.
