

CZECHSTRINGS

Czech Strings, as his name suggests, is a Czech producer and DJ of Electronic and Hip-Hop/R&B music based in Berlin. He has collaborated with leading Czech and Slovak artists (Separ, Nik Tendo, Dorian), and he stands behind the production of over 50 songs, which have already accumulated more than 25 million streams in total.

In 2023, his most successful single, Letny Vecer by Fobia Kid, surpassed 5 million streams on Spotify alone, and the album PATTERN by Nik Tendo & NobodyListen, to which he contributed as a co-producer, has reached #1 on the Czech IFPI chart.

Following the release of his debut project BA / BERLIN, an EP in collaboration with Keviix, Czech Strings returns with I'm Done! He is joining forces with the French artist Loulia, with whom they connected in Berlin.

I'm Done, produced by Czech Strings and written and performed by Loulia, is an R&B ballad about getting over the emotional unavailability of a love interest and realizing the toxicity of a relationship. Sonically, the single has a mellow and electroacoustic character, thanks to its dreamy synth pad chord progressions and the use of minimal 808 drum machine samples, built around the singer's expressive vocals taking center stage.
