

nthirteen

ambient, lofi, electro

Welcome to the music of nthirteen, a solo improvised live experience created by Andre Neumann. nthirteen combines ambient, jazz and shoegaze based elements with choppy, glitchy and deep samples, rhythms and vocal snippets to it's very own kind of songs. He combines elements of a live band experience with singer/songwriter emotions and the power of electronic music. Every single show is a unique, sonic, live experience.

Latest album is called: ‚That Time of the Year‘ and contains 10 songs from 2024. Modular drones meet catchy melodies, drenched into strange effects and rumbling electro beats, that oscillate digital and analog just to find its final boss in the SP404 vinyl sim. The sad vocals are just the tip of the iceberg.
