

An aerial photograph of a river winding through a dense, lush green forest. The water is dark and textured with small ripples. The surrounding trees are thick and vibrant green, framing the river. The word "SELVA" is overlaid in large, white, bold, sans-serif capital letters across the middle of the river.

SELVA

SELVA goes beyond music; it's a multisensory journey that transcends the melodies of Ecstatic Dance. Hailing from Tulum, SELVA not only offers sonic experiences but also guides meditative and shamanic medicine sessions, inviting you to open your heart, expand your mind, and connect with your body.

Rooted in Tulum, SELVA has forged meaningful connections with various artists, sharing moments that converge into a shared vision of music and life. Whether collaborating or solo, SELVA blends Latin American, folkloric, and electronic sounds.

Immerse yourself in the immersive experience of SELVA, where original and curated music intertwine to create a dance that encourages exploring emotions and connecting with the senses. Join SELVA on this unique musical journey that takes you beyond the notes, delving into the deepest corners of your being.

AGUA VIVA DEL CIELO

SELVA FT KALO SEPÚLVEDA

AGUA VIVA DEL CIELO:

"Agua Viva del Cielo" is an anthem born from the enchantment of magical places in Tulum. A song that effortlessly embeds itself in the listener's subconscious, becoming an instant sing-along.

The fusion of downtempo and cumbia adds warmth to KALO's vocals, inviting relaxed dancing to SELVA's percussion beats. This track marks SELVA's official debut single in collaboration with artist and producer Kalo Sepúlveda.

"Agua Viva del Cielo" pays homage to one of the essential elements of the human experience, emphasizing life's essence of flowing like water. It encourages embracing formlessness, adapting as a person, and focusing energy on the fluid journey of existence.

SÓPLAME TU FUEGO

ZAMIR MAYA SELVA KALO SEPÚLVEDA

SÓPLAME TU FUEGO:

"Sóplame Tu Fuego" by SELVA is more than just a song; it's a sonic journey into sensuality and inner connection. Recorded in Tulum with Zamir Maya and Kalo Sepúlveda, this piece is not merely a creation but a sensory voyage that breaks free from the conventional.

The collaboration has a clear purpose: to provide a unique auditory experience. SELVA invites us to dance with freedom, explore deep emotions, and embrace the philosophy of fire that propels every note. Discover SELVA's distinctive essence in "Sóplame Tu Fuego," where music transforms into a revealing journey.
