

BIOGRAPHY

ROSA, US - based producer with a vision of community & union that resonates in the soul of every audience member. Rosa pursued a bachelor of arts in audio engineering at FULL SAIL University in Orlando. Prior to graduating, he had already released his 2011 debut single, "Broken Keys," on Illegal Alien Records. Raised on the breakbeat, hip-hop and freestyle of a bygone era, Rosa utilizes his formal training as an audio engineer to craft house and techno with an almost tribal groove. With releases on Labels like Desert Hearts, Yoruba Records and P.U.N.C.H.I.S. plus most recently his first LP on Deep Tech Records which was premiered by Nightclubber.Ro, CONNECT & Klubikon he's also released others via his own imprint, Early Morning Music and Strange People. As a label boss, Rosa has facilitated releases for such artists as Mikey Lion, Coriesu and Hernan Bass via Early Morning Music, which he founded alongside Brandon Andrews. In 2018 Rosa also launched an artist imprint called Strange People which specializes in more upbeat peak hour tracks. To date, he has also put out originals and remixes via Fast Lane Records , Draft, RITMIK Records, My First Love Record, Malicious Smile, Lowroom Recordings, Natural Beat Recordings, and Kanja Records, super freq, and many more also receiving support on his Percomaniacs release named "HOUSE PARTY" which was charted by Loco Dice & his 2017 "What have you Pumped for me lately" EP on Desert Hearts that received huge support from Jamie Jones and was a staple at DC-10 that summer plus a recently signed release on the prolific NERVOUS RECORDS

Rosa has also had sucess in releasing vinyl, his remix of Duky's "Creatures of the Ocean" sold out within a month of being pressed, and "Tennessee Confessions" which came out on Still Play Records with remixes by Julie Marghilano and Synkrone on the Ep. 2019 marks his 3rd vinyl release.
