Uk	Reverb Radio / Green radio, RadioReverb	fatdrop	Clive Craske	Rating: 5 – What a fantastic collection of rave-related choons. From the gabba-speed chipmunkery of "What Is This Thing?" via the cosmic drum'n'bass of "Vebus" and the (unplayable on the radio 'cos of swearing) full-on "Scapegoat" this album is firin' on all cylinders. "Geiger Counter" is more off-kilter, pulsating and hard. After an ambient intro "Pure Knowledge" is a superbly cantering breaks beast. "The Shakes" is a dirtier spluttering and stunted animal. Familiar melodies and atmospheres combine for "The Twilight Zone (Music 2000 Mix)" with half/double speed breakbeat sections. << Nothing else matters >> The acidic synths and thunderous rollin' breaks of "It's Not A Matter Of Belief" make a top tune. "Rave Clubs And Things" is a skitty number, A change to deeply trippy and acidic for "Imagery Garden" with its extended breakdowns and powerful rhythms. Ace. "Cantina Scene" presumably references the Star Wars bar with its droids and aliens. It rattles rapidly along - eerily. Nice. Propulsive breaks-driven trance suffuses "Right There". The whiplash hits of "Inertia" spin the top into a resisting gyroscope. "Shape Shifter" is squelchy techno - nice one squirrel. To close "Pelt" gives us no-nonsense industrial. Hard as nails. 10/10

Uk	Eclair Fifi, Lucky Me, NTS	fatdrop	Clair Stirling	Rating: 5 – incredible!!
UK	astrophonica.com	fatdrop	Charlie Fieber	Rating: 3 – I like the out of time drum loop in Scapegoat. That was an aesthetic that popped up a lot in the 90s, intentionally or otherwise.
