

Pia Baris

Pia Baris, the 19-year-old singer and songwriter from Germany, has been singing for as long as she can remember. As a newcomer in the music industry, Pia is taking modern pop music to the next level. Early on, she discovered how to process the challenges and thoughts of growing up through music. Her family has supported her talent from the very first note. Today, Pia writes her own lyrics and composes by playing the matching melody on the piano. Thanks to her bilingual upbringing, she writes her songs in English, drawing inspiration from international pop icons.

At just 10 years old, she became a member of the "Frankfurt Opera" and was awarded a scholarship to train at the renowned Frankfurt University of Music and Performing Arts, "Dr. Hoch's Conservatory".

Alongside her classical and pop music education, she is also a talented pianist who has been taking piano lessons since the age of six.

During her time with the Frankfurt Opera, Pia participated in over 150 performances, appearing as a soloist (soprano) for two consecutive years. These performances showcase her talent and professionalism. At just 16, she debuted her first original pop songs as a newcomer at prestigious events like the "LEA Award," Frankfurt's Paulskirche Festival, and numerous other venues. But Pia is not just a musical talent—her skills in ballet and hip-hop dancing, highlight her artistic versatility.

Her song "selfdestructive" (release date: August 23, 2024) received outstanding feedback and was played on the radio for the first time, as was "bittersweet" (release date: January 10, 2025), inspired by Sabrina Carpenter and 80s vocalists.

This pop song explores the theme of unrequited romance, unfolding in hopeful, innocent daydreams. Yet, it maintains an uplifting vibe, approaching the situation with humor and not taking itself too seriously. This lightheartedness is also reflected in the music video for „bittersweet“, where Pia showcases her artistic talents.

Her latest release, "like a record," is the playful continuation of "bittersweet," building on its melodies and carefree charm.
