Hospitality Rider

First of all: THANKS FOR HAVING US! We're happy to come your way and are looking forward to meeting you. We do not tent to be divas, but still, if possible, we've stated some things that would really make our day. After all... The way to these men's hearts is through the stomach.

Travel party (7x):

- Jarno van Osch (left)
- Marco Gelissen (center)
- Peter van Grunsven (right)
- Bert Gysemans (management)

AEWK comes in a big MAN van.
7 meters long, 2.70 meters high.
Please provide a parking space nearby the loading dock. License: VRL-75-K

Food:

Normally there a NO allergies and NO particular food preferences. AEWK are happy to eat vegetarian or meat. As long as it's a decent meal (no snackbar/fries) we're happy. If there is no food at the venue, a €15 buyout per member of the travel party will do as well.

AEWK's travel party typically contains 5 to 7 members.

The 3 crewmembers differ every show. For that the allergies and preferences might differ.

If this is different than mentioned above we will inform you upfront.

Snacks:

If you really want to make our day we love to have chips and M&M's (with peanuts).
Some fruit might be welcome, depending on the show the day before 😊

Drinks:

A SUFFICIENT amount of beer, soda drinks (Coca Cola, Ice Tea etc.) and water.

10 tokens per member of the travel party will be a good replacement if the mentioned above is not available in the backstage. If you really want to make our day we love to drink hard liquor like 'Jack Daniels (Fireball)', 'Dutch Dynamite', 'Southern Comfort', 'Jägermeister' or... feel free to surprise us
