

FORT - instrumental post rock/metal

FFO Maybeshewill / If These Trees Could Talk/ Caspian / Russian Circles

The band have established a loyal local following that is now spreading across the U.K. and beyond following recent successes this year with a run of shows as main support with Din of Celestial Birds and a co-headliner run with Overhead, The Albatross. Previous successes including packing out Arctangent'24 festival's Yohkai stage ahead of the likes of Vower & Caspian, as well as a U.K. tour with Ranges & Din of Celestial Birds in May of 2024, building on a previous headline U.K. run and shows with the likes of PG.Lost, Pijn, Hidden Mothers, Copse, Bi-curious, El Moono, Polymath & Vukovi, just to name a few.

In August of 2024 the band released their third EP 'Over The Water, Where The Clouds Grow' which was received fantastically by fans, reviewers and the scene alike.

Recent press:

"FORT really showcase their versatility on this new EP, masterfully blending diverse sonic elements into a cohesive and compelling narrative. Fans of the genre certainly won't be disappointed with this release and we can't wait to see how their debut album turns out next year!" - Buttonpusher DIY

"Riding high on the momentum of their recent EP, Over The Water Where The Clouds Grow, the four piece band filled the Yohkai stage with their sweeping atmospheres" Scene Music Media
