GENERAL INFO ABOUT THE BAND:

Smallman is a Bulgarian band that creates heavy, experimental, sludge, ambient music, influenced by the "Balkans" folklore. Along with the low heavy riffs, deep vocals and ambient moments, the band uses Bulgarian/Balkan native instruments GAIDA and KAVAL which enriches the music to a greater extent, giving it more hypnotic vibe.

The band was formed in 2001 in the foot of the "Rhodope" mountains which is one of the main inspirations for their work. The first album, self-released and self titled in 2006, is followed by several invitations from popular festivals in Bulgaria. In 2010, the positively accepted second album – "Labyrinth of Present" brings the band to some of the biggest events in the region, including "Spirit of Burgas", Bulgaria and "Best'Fest" in Romania. The band toured Eastern-Europe twice – in 2012 and 2013, when they visited Serbia, Romania, Slovenia, Hungary and Austria.

In early 2014, the start of the creation of Smallman's third album took place in the highest village on the Balkans. In the next months, after several productive sessions with the co-producer Lachezar Georgiev the album was released under the name of "Envision". After travelling around the Balkans, the band is turning view towards Central and Western Europe... to share the journey.
