CLIVE JACKSON is a Singer/Songwriter, exploring different genres, such as Rock, Blues and Folk.

He plays all the instruments heard on solo recordings, including: Guitars, harmonica, bass and percussion.

A veteran of Rock bands who were part of the Newcastle music scene in the 1990's, he was a member of 'Greedsville' who released an Album in 1994 - 'The Casino Royale Collection' (CDBLEED 9).

In 1996 he formed the band 'Arch Stanton' who recently released an album for download/streaming, online: 'The Stanton Files' made up of recordings from 1996-2000. (CDBaby - Arch Stanton1).

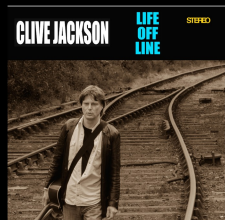

He has experienced most aspects of the music industry: Promoting an album through extensive U.K touring, T.V and Radio appearances, working in a recording studio, session work and producing other artists.

He is also a Film-Maker and has produced music related videos, live performances and documentaries, through his production company Automatic Films.

LIFE OFF LINE is a new, raw, acoustic album. It displays strong songwriting, with insightful, uncompromising, lyrical content.

The strength of feeling is key to the songs, sometimes one voice and one guitar is enough to convey heartfelt emotions, no over production required.

Atmospheric and soul baring, the album mixes timeless themes with the struggles of modern life.
