

”...there is only one rule: no rules!”

The idea around the band Ricochet was conceived in 2009 in Belgrade, out of the need to experiment and the quest for new identity in modern music (rock 'n' roll). The band started to form in 2012 as a trio (guitar, bass, drums) finding its way in progressive style of composing combined by fierce hardrock sound. The lyrics tell of cruel today, tragic yesterday, and uncertain tomorrow, as well as the ordinaries in life that are seemingly complicated yet truthful. Ricochet was founded by Miloš Bjelobrk (guitarist, composer, lyricist) and after many personal changes the band settled on Vladimir Sovilj Sova (bassist, composer, lyricist) and Nenad Matekalo (drummer, multi-instrumentalist, music arranger).
