So Many Roads (BJUR 041)
selected as 'BEST OF 2014' by
DOWNBEAT MAGAZINE,
THE VILLAGE VOICE (#4)
and
THE NEW YORK CITY JAZZ RECORD

A dedicated composer, uncompromising artist and a full-blooded bassist; Anne Mette leads her groups with strong musical vision. The Anne Mette Iversen Quartet has been her core group for 10+ years, and is known for its invigorating performances, masterful improvisations and unified group sound. Now it comes in a Quintet version, extended with trombone!

"Anne Mette Iversen brings instrumental dexterity as well as sharp compositional and band-leading skills with her" - THE NEW YORKER

"Iversen's playing is constantly subtle and suggestive, dropping hints that see to linger in the air..." - DOWNBEAT MAGAZINE

"A hard-swinging, conceptually ambitious bassist-composer..." - TIME OUT NEW YORK

"Danish bassist Anne Mette Iversen is now based in Berlin, though her leading role in the Brooklyn Jazz Underground has had a huge impact on the New York scene." - David R. Adler, THE VILLAGE VOICE

The musicians:

John Ellis - tenor saxophone
Peter Dahlgren - trombone
Danny Grissett - piano
Anne Mette Iversen - bass
Otis Brown III - drums
