

RUN OVER DOGS

 SONER, GARAGE, DESERT ROCK WITH POST PUNK INFLUENCES ***

Run Over Dogs are a four-piece rock band from Budapest, formed in 2012. The band's musical output is mainly based around the desert rock genre, with some psychedelic, post punk influences.

Run Over Dogs have released two EPs, 'Sallywag' (2013), 'Cold Blooded Jukeboxing Gives Us No Nitemares' (2014) and two LPs, Noxious Foodies (2013), and the new album 'Cold Sweat of Lust' released in September 2015.

The band became well known in the local underground scene when they won two of the biggest underground music contests out of 700 bands. "These catchy riffs, the sing-along choruses and their powerful live performances strike a chord with any audience." Shortly after Run Over Dogs debut album was released and their first single '2:54' was voted Quart's song of the year for 2013, (one of the most read Hungarian music blogs).

Two weeks later their first music video 'Our Love' was voted the "Best music video in 2013" in Hungary. In 2014/2015 the band played 30 gigs over Western Europe (UK – London, Liverpool, Manchester etc. / France – Paris / Germany – Berlin, etc. / Switzerland – Bern, Luzern / Czech Republic – Prague, etc.) Since 2014 Run Over Dogs have played at some of the biggest Central European Festivals (such as Volt Festival – headliners: Arctic Monkeys, Queens of the Stone Age, Slash etc. / Rock for People Festival – headliners: Faith No More, Limp Bizkit, Motörhead etc.)

Run Over Dogs has been sponsored by companies like Converse (sporting goods), Paiste (manufacturer and designer of cymbals), Agner (manufacturer and designer of drumsticks).
