BLAOW! Make room for Synikall and his hard-hitting new single; Who Got The Buzz!

Having teamed up with breakbeat legends The Freestylers, this high octane anthem, full to the brim with nostalgia and good vibes, reminds us of what makes hip hop great!

Having previously been released on The Freestylers 2013 album 'The Coming Storm', fresh-faced label Melee Recording Group are giving the track a new lease of life as the first single off Synikall's up-coming album 'Illusions of Grandeur'.

'Who Got The Buzz' has been championed by BBC Introducing WM during 2015 gaining regular rotation. "It's brilliant, I love it" claimed Louise Brierly, presenter. Fellow presenter Jack Parker said "Synikall is my favourite Hip Hop artist of recent times".

The single and accompanying remixes will be available to download from all major digital stores & streaming sites as of 25th March 2016.

From the humble beginnings of Birmingham, UK, Synikall's first taste of the music scene was as a DJ & MC in the party capital of Europe Ayia Napa. After returning to the UK, Synikall started to make his assault on UK urban music, gaining regular video rotation on Channel AKA and featuring on a nationally distributed mixtape compilation alongside heavyweights such as Dizzie Rascal, Wiley etc.

Off the back of his first underground release 'Rollercoaster', Synikall performed alongside the likes of Professor Green & Labrinth, featured on popular media channels such as P110 & JDZ Media and has been working with major names in underground music such as Club Asylum and global artists The Freestylers, who had him feature on their latest album 'The Coming Storm'.

Synikall's previous contribution to the scene, a fusion of House, Trap & Hip Hop entitled 'Shut Ur Trap EP' was picked up and released by Dutch label Black Hole Recordings, owned by world famous DJ Tiesto and has clocked up over 100,000 views on YouTube.

His popularity in the scene continues to grow with regular support from BBC Introducing, championing tracks from his up coming album due to be released later this year.
