Paranoid Android the shrill Electro-Rockers with the dark sunglasses call their music Future-New-Wave, a combination of guitar riffs with an electronic sound skeleton teleporting the New-Wave-Style into the 21st century. The main sources of inspiration are Bands like Depeche Mode, the Cure and the Sisters of Mercy. At the centre of the music is the special voice of Guido Vortex and his extraordinary guitar riffs, both delighting fans permanently. The main attraction of the live shows are the elaborate guitar improvisations of Guido Vortex and the wacky synth-lines of Andy N-Droid.
