

Balladero presents the outstanding new album Perfect You (Club2 Records, 2016)

Powerful, tasteful, groove-filled and unique! This is what the new album Balladero Perfect You is all about.

Fresh, carefully crafted new songs by accomplished Slovenian singer songwriter Balladero, featuring a team of experienced international musicians and a top of the charts producer is the formula behind the outstanding sophomore release, released March 2016 on Club2records (available as CD and digital download - iTunes, Apple music, Deezer, Spotify and others).

The upcoming album features 10 new original songs bringing out the best with Balladero's unique style in a true powerhouse recording! The production took place in Munich, Germany at Achtung Music Studios in collaboration with producer Uwe Bossert, also known to audiences worldwide as guitarist and songwriter of the German superstar band Reamonn. In the past Bossert has enjoyed success with a number of top chart hits and has co-written and co-produced the band's global hits like »Supergirl« and »Tonight«. Teaming up with Balladero for this special release Bossert added his trademark sound to the album also as a guest on electric and acoustic guitars.

Joining Dominik Bagola – Balladero on piano, keyboards and vocals was a group of experienced session musicians: Sebastian Rotard on drums (Marie & the RedCat, Sidewalkers), Hubert Steiner on bass (Thees Ullman, Carpet) and Mirna Bogdanovic on backing vocals (winner of Downbeat magazine competition for best student jazz performance).

Also, don't miss a chance to book Balladero live! Teaming up with some of the best and most in-demand Slovenian musicians, Balladero is a must see live act, presenting the songs with a natural flair, edge and pristine quality!
