

A NEW WAVE OF ART AND PROGRESSIVE MUSIC

On the back of the success of their debut release, Tindrumm return with new single '1864'

!!NOT FOR RELEASE UNTIL 17/11/16!!

Upon release of their debut single Tindrumm gained acclaim from highly respectable online blogs, attaining single of the week from Even The Stars "it's an extremely promising beginning and suggests a band that's not afraid to have big ideas and to commit them to record." and made it into Getintothis' record store day tracks of the week 'A vividly impressive audio trip'.

From the success of the band's first two singles the band were able to host sell out shows at Gullivers in Manchester's famed Northern Quarter and Sacred Trinity Church in Salford and perform at 2000 Trees festival.

The band will bring their unique live show back to the Sacred Trinity Church on the 1st of December to celebrate the release of '1864'

"This is a real journey, true art" - Grammy award winning Mastering Engineer Mandy Parnell (Bjork, Sigur Ros, Aphex Twin).

"Sounds ace, nice work, very happy" - Recording engineer Gary Hadfield (Elbow, The Stereophonics, Steve White).
