

THE REVELLIONS

Garage Psych Band Based in Dublin

Band Bio

The Revellions is an Originals Psychedelic 60s Rock band based in Dublin. The actual line-up for the band is:

James Lister – Lead Guitar, Main Vocals

Michael Smith – Drummer, Sampler

Sean Adderley – Rhythm Guitar, Backing Vocals

Edward Aspel - Rhythm Guitar, Backing Vocals

Anna Mulhbach – Organ, Synth, Backing Vocals

Juanma Castilla – Bass, Backing Vocals

The Revellions are a sextet of misfits based in Dublin, fronted by Dublin's Rock and Roll veteran James Lister. Over the years members have come and go and after the departure of two core members the band's lineup now has a multicultural magic touch added to these garage surf psychedelic tunes (Irish, Estonian and Spanish) taking the band to the next level after two well known garage sound albums called The Revellions and Give it Time, that were presented along several tours in Germany, France, United Kingdom and Norway.

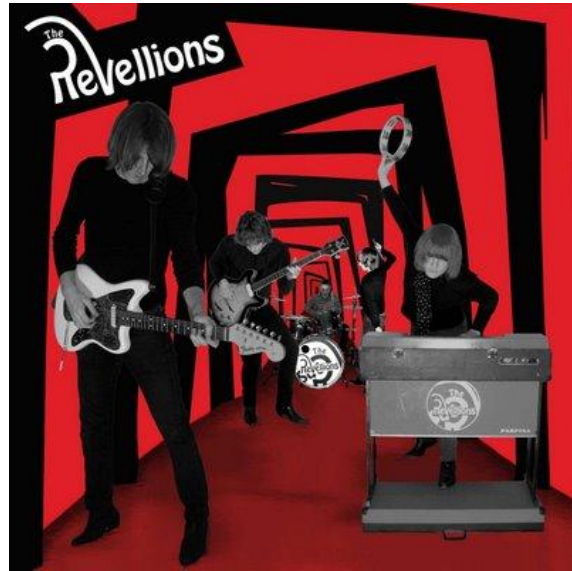

The band is now working on the recording of their 3rd album with the sound of garage influenced rock and roll and with a side order of surf guitar with that psychedelic touch that the band has always created with their tunes to be presented on vinyl and cd next year (single to come later on this year), and already being presented in the core of the garage clubs of Dublin and in our recent tour over the East Coast of Spain in core places as Satélite-T in Bilbao, Sala REM in Murcia, Magazine Club in Valencia and La Traviesa in Tarragona with a great feedback from the venues and the attendants.
