Biography:

Music has featured throughout the short 19 years of Robyn Herdman’s life, but it was just under two years ago, when seeking a means to express an upsetting event, that Robyn turned to song-writing. Self-confessed as not a confident communicator, Robyn feels differently on the stage, using her songs as a release, expressing feelings and personal experience, that she would otherwise be unwilling to reveal, seeking to stir the emotions of others and reach out to those who are wise enough to listen.

Influenced by other piano driven singers, Robyn is inspired by the leading ladies of pop and soul music. Robyn also now hears her songs with a band behind them, which perhaps suggests possible avenues of development in the future, beyond her current piano accompaniment.

Having completed her HND in Music at The Academy of Sound (Edinburgh) Robyn is studying her BA, whilst continuing to work on her singer songwriter career.

Already with a great set of gigs and experience behind her, Robyn looks set to continue gigging - happy to support others, but with a view to eventually headlining her own concerts and performing at festivals, whilst continually increasing her fan-base throughout.
