Young pop style, rapping singer songwriter with a huge live sound and image. His songs have been played by DJs in clubs, on the BBC, and featured on many blogs, magazines and newspapers.

Jamie Borrowdale is a 24-year-old writer/producer/musician/singer from the UK- Living in Manchester. He makes intense euphoric songs with an acoustic tone incorporated with large dance beats, meaningful lyrics, some rap, organic instruments, very soulful riffs and guitar solos.

He performs with an acoustic guitar, effects and a loop station when playing live and his sound packs a punch well, well.. above its weight for one man. He started at the age of 7 and is experienced with entertaining big & small crowds. His music is extremely euphoric, vibrant and great for festival vibes. Note that his live sound is far bigger than just an acoustic act.. it sounds more like a band and is very impressive.

His style is a mixture of pop, alternative rock, rap, and soul with influences such as Jack Garrett, Moby, Rudimental, Avicii, Nina Simone and Eminem.

Jamie has released three singles and one E.P. His new single “I’ll Make it Rain” has had major radio play and was recently released 2017 as only a temporary release for an Island records competition but has since done quite well. It has had around 7500 plays on Spotify and had 9600 plays on Soundcloud in a fairly short period of time. The songs raspy vocals, slide guitar and modern twist make it one that really sticks in your head! It has also had a great reaction on radio stations so far. John Lipscombe at the BBC Radio has been repeatedly playing Jamie's tracks and adding very kind comments.

Jamie’s releases have been played by DJs in clubs, on the BBC, and featured on many blogs, radio stations, magazines, and newspapers. His new single has also gained major label attention. He has previously played live at Looe fest, Leeds town hall, Party In the Valley, Nozstock, The Ritz, Live Room, 2000 Trees, Field Day, Pop-up fest, Sonderfest, Soundwaves, Solfest, Togfest, Geckgo and many, many other venues/festivals... Big and small.
