

"Like the Eagles have hired Jack Johnson for some lessons on lightening up" - Rolling Stone Magazine (Oliver Sean - MTV EMA Nominee & Vh1 Top 10)

and the 9th Annual WOA International Music Festival & Tour in England and hits Colombia and Costa Rica this October on his Devil in Blue Jeans Tour.

Bio:

MTV Europe Music Awards Nominee (Best Worldwide Act) & Vh1 Top 10 artist Oliver Sean's music can best be described as 'Feel Good Rock with Soul'. The Singer/Songwriter thrived in the Goa, Dubai and the UK cultures as they acted as the backdrop to his youth, and the inspiration for his music. His discography with record label W.O.A. Entertainment began in 1999 with his single 'There She Is Again'.

Oliver Sean's media clippings have formed a career of their own. Since his career was launched in his teens, Oliver's press clippings exceed several hundred features, snippets, and reviews in significant print and broadcast mediums. His brand of music is known for its pop rock influence with contemporary undertones. His debut album was nominated for 'International Album of the Year' by AVMax in 2003/04 along with albums by John Mayer, Robbie Williams, Kylie Minogue and Third Eye Blind.

Oliver Sean's eclectic global music style is the trademark for his brand, and is as exotic as his Portuguese Goan Lineage. A self-taught musician, Oliver plays guitar, bass, keyboards and drums. However, it is his distinctive percussive guitar style and powerfully seductive voice, which is his footprint on the music industry. His track record of being a hit songwriter is just one of his many assets defining him as a pillar in the music community. Oliver Sean is a member of the Recording Academy and a Voting Member for the prestigious Grammy Awards.

As a Record Producer and Filmmaker Oliver Sean has composed music for the French Government (Massif Region Tourism Campaign) & Goa Government (Republic Day Parade). He has also composed the soundtrack as a music director for a Bollywood Feature Film and the title track for a Goan Feature Film. The singer songwriter is actively producing music for films and artists around the world and is also a successful filmmaker himself, with several music videos that he has Directed and Produced, regularly featured on Vh1 & MTV. Oliver also hosts the Internationally distributed weekly 'WOAFM99 Radio Show'.

Latest News:

The MTV Europe Music Awards Nominee, whose music RollingStone Magazine called "its like the Eagles have hired Jack Johnson for some lessons on lightening up" has surprised fans with his stripped down acoustic rock set up across his gigs worldwide. In October last year Vh1 released Oliver Sean's brand new single & music video 'New York' as an exclusive on Vh1 International and the second single 'First Move' soon followed across radio stations worldwide. Both these singles were previews to Oliver Sean's 4th studio album 'Devil in 'Blue Jeans' which was released worldwide on the 31st of August this year, supported by Vh1 International across Asia and the Middle East, BBC Radio in the UK and RTP International across Europe, America and Latin America. 2017 has also seen the Oliver Sean Band Headline across 2 major tours - The Heartland Tour in America

The Oliver Sean Band are actively touring and performing worldwide and the Singer/Songwriter has recently launched his much anticipated 4th studio album 'Devil in Blue Jeans' on the 31st of August 2017.

4th Studio Album Details:

Band/artist: Oliver Sean

Album Title: Devil in Blue Jeans

Label: WOA Entertainment

Release Date: 31st August, 2017

Genre: Rock

Description: The MTV EMA Nominee's much anticipated 4th Studio Album with the music video for the single 'First Move' expected to hit Vh1 International and RTP International mid September. BBC Radio in the UK have already picked up the single 'Walk up & Kiss you' currently playing on radio across the UK. The first pre view single 'New York' had its music video hit Vh1, 9XO and RTP on various platforms including Exclusive, breaking video and artist in focus Influences for the album: With over 12 albums, EPs, singles and more released by Oliver Sean in the past decade, his influences range from artists as diverse as jazz and blues legends to rock and progressive fusion stars. The common theme that runs across his music though is a positive vibe that leaves the listeners with a smile.

Track suggestions for radio: Walk up & Kiss you, Devil in Blue Jeans, Somebody, First Move, New York

CD Track listing:

1. Come for me (the naughty song) - this is the band's favourite song by the way :)
2. New York
3. Devil in blue jeans
4. Walk up & kiss you
5. Magic
6. First move
7. Somebody
8. New York (Unplugged)
9. First move (Unplugged)

Links:

www.oliversean.com

Facebook - <http://www.facebook.com/oliverseanband>

Twitter @oliversean

Instagram - <http://www.instagram.com/oliversean>

YouTube - <http://www.youtube.com/oliversean>

Soundcloud - <http://www.soundcloud.com/woarecords>

manager@oliversean.com
+44 01162128204 (England)
+1-303-379-6425 (USA)