

The Well Happy Band are on a mission: to make the world happier one song at a time. They officially began in March 2016, played their first festival after being together for 6 weeks and have hardly stopped since!

After an unexpectedly busy debut festival season the band took to the studio and The Little Album of Happiness was released in 2017, containing songs that listeners return to again and again because it makes them smile.

The Well Happy Band are proud to be a part of the Yellow Movement with their friends Colonel Mustard and the Dijon 5, Jamie & Shoony and The Girobabies, amongst others. They have performed numerous times at Yellow Movement nights, helping to raise money for charities all over Scotland.

With lots of fun, laughs and audience participation, The Well Happy Band guarantee to get the crowd going with inspiring and up-beat, genre-hopping songs about happiness, love, life, laughter and gratitude.

'It's like the King Blues meets The Doors with Janis Joplin vocals' - NHC Music

You can listen here:

www.thewellhappyband.bandcamp.com

Find out what we're up to here:

www.facebook.com/wellhappyband

