VELVET ECHOES

Announce their New EP LAUNCH

Plymouth based Indie Rock Band VELVET ECHOES are thrilled to announce the release of the latest EP IS IT ENOUGH? Also available from iTunes, Spotify and Deezer from Friday 24th November 2017.

IS IT ENOUGH? is Velvet Echoes second EP and follows on from the debut EP 'Crowns and Anchors', bringing a new powerful chemistry that pushes their artistic boundaries to even higher levels. From previous hits such as 'I Got a Way' and 'Toothpaste Smile' this EP maintains the artistic edge already demonstrated in their previous works, which includes newly released singles 'Scarlet Heart' and 'You Wanted Love', and encompasses the close connection of pure rock with that Alternative twist.

Coming off the back of a successful summer tour culminating with an amazing set on the BBC Introducing stage at LOOE Festival, Velvet Echoes have gigged from Plymouth through to London, hitting the road through summer festivals and rock venues along the way.

Having been represented on the BBC Introducing Devon and Cornwall stage and through the live radio shows, to an introduction on TV through 'This Morning'. Velvet Echoes are becoming the number 1 Indie Rock Alternative in Devon and Cornwall.
