

BOTTLECAP

When writing a presentation of a band you can focus on being mysterious, or you can write the usual boring history of how they formed the band and... boring, boring, boring. Or not. I just decided not. I won't do it. Let's try something else.

BOTTLECAP is a trio of young skinny men from Gothenburg City and you if you like a wild show, you will love them. If you like rock'n'roll you will love them. If you like the feeling of not knowing what will happen, well yes, then you will definitely love them. This is a band just writing great songs and doing furious live performances, they don't even know themselves what will happen.

Ok, you wanna know some more – they formed in 2008, released their debut album 2012 and toured Europe intensively in 2013 and 2015. In support of the 2016 EP YOU KNOW I'M WALKING ON ICE the band went on two separate tours, taking them to eight countries. And yet, in 2017 the touring was even more intense. In May the band broke the European border and went on to do a tour in Australia, playing festivals like CherryRock017 on AC/DC Lane in Melbourne.

Once again BOTTLECAP will bring their no-brainer show anywhere, and we just hope there won't be any broken bones or messed up faces. They are pretty boys as well, so that would be a shame. Only advice I can give is to let loose, get wild, go mad, waste it, get into it. Will that do? We good? Ok then. Thanks.

Regards

M. Roth de Fries Lündberg
