

SIBYL VANE

BIO

Estonian alternative rock band Sibyl Vane returns with a brand new self-titled album, released April 21st 2017. Combining indie post-punk with shoegaze and elements from 90s alternative rock, Sibyl Vane's expressive and melancholic sound gets its final grind by band's front woman - singer-songwriter and guitarist Helena Randlaht's recognizably unique voice and charismatic image.

Their powerful and charismatic stage presence has pleased critics and audiences in different countries around Europe. Their musical expressions have been compared with artists like PJ Harvey, Anna Calvi, The Cranberries, Depeche Mode and Jesus and Mary Chain. As children of the 90s they are exploding something we all remember from MTV and sweaty rock venues we used to visit.

The trio started their journey in the spring of 2010. After winning several competitions in Estonia they earned international attention that led to signing a record deal with the Latvian label I Love You Records in 2012. The collaboration resulted in warmly welcomed debut album Love, Holy Water & TV and two years of album presentations over the Baltics, Finland and Sweden.
