BIO

Cintia Lund, is a Swedish/Spanish singer songwriter based in Madrid. She started to write her first songs during the 3 years period that she lived in New York City, that is why her debut album is called "New York Anthem". A mix of genres that lean together to a very stimulating soundtrack of alternative, pop, dreamy rock. Audience favorite tune is "Red Velvet" with more than half of million streams on Spotify in the last 8 months.

But where Cintia Lund really excels is in her live performances, her attitude and style are as important as the sound itself, delivering in each show a musical and visual experience, defined by many as elegant glam in a modern mix of fashion with music. These are some of the quotes from music critics about her shows; "Immaculate", "electrifying" "Captivating" "Cool and different", "She isn't just another emerging artist".

On her latest live show at "Theater Circo Price" with an audience of 1500 people, "El Pais" major Spanish newspaper described her performance as "Fun and entertaining and compared her songs Don't be Cruel and Dont cry for me Manhattan to the playful sound of Blondie"
