

About Djinn City

Djinn City consists of electronic musician Aidar and classically trained guitarist Timur.

Their upcoming record "Yort" (meaning "House" in Tatar) is a mix of electronic pop and Tatar folk tunes, some of which they have collected in field expeditions to villages.

Djinn City's debut EP "Slow" was coproduced by legendary producer and hitmaker Michael James (New Radicals, Hole, Jawbreaker) and draws influences from 80s pop music.
