"Remember the movie "Where the wild things are"? remember how you felt like your soul was turned into an innocent hurricane of beauty? Reminding us of alt-J and Arcade Fire, Me & the Monsters hypnotic vocals and sexy bass lines will make you want to dance around a campfire with feathers in your hair."

BIO

“Me & the Monster” is an up and coming, international indie band, based in Berlin. The founding members Andrea Trujillo (Barcelona /Venezuela (SP/VEN)) and Nico Uris (Alicante (SP)) met each other at the Reeperbahn Festival 2017 in Hamburg and reunited in October 2017 as students of the British and Irish Modern Music Institute (BIMM) in Berlin where they started collaborating on various musical projects. In November 2017 fellow student Giulia Mariani (Rom (ITA)) completed the group now calling themselves „Me & the Monster“.

Due to their international background the band played with their diverse influences, causing indigenous, south- american elements to merge with electronic features and creating what the band today describes as “tribal electronic progressive Indie” - A mix of catchy vocals, groovy rhythms and challenging lyrics.

The band name „Me & the Monster“ describes the modern man and his connection with the most original part of himself, the subconscious - his monster. The lyrics deal with questions about freedom and environmental and social awareness.

The band is currently working in their debut single „Kosmonaut“ which will be released on the 21st of September.
