

Ever find yourself staring at your old denim vest with the many hand-sewn patches and the slight fragrance of beers past, feeling nostalgic about the good old days of thrash metal? Sure you do! It's time to stop being a wimp, grab that sucker out of the wardrobe and head to the nearest moshpit to bang your head until it comes off, because Fusion Bomb are back with their first full-length, called „Concrete Jungle“!

These youngsters take everything that made 80s thrash so great, update it to today's standards and then add their own twist! The result is a timeless piece of aural assault that sounds fiercer than ever before, thanks to the mighty Chris „Zeuss“ Harris (Revocation, Municipal Waste), who was the logical go-to after the well-received concept EP „Pravda“.

With a healthy amount of live experiences in West-Europe, opening for legends such as Megadeth, Tankard and Dust Bolt, even an Eastern Bloc tour, there's no stopping Fusion Bomb! They're here to stay and slay! So make sure to give their music and your head a spin!

Discography

Pravda (September 2016, self-published EP)
You're A Cancer To This World (May 2018,
Single, Initium Records)
Concrete Jungle (September 2018)

- Crossover-Thrash from Luxembourg
- Too young to fall in love and energetic
- Mixing and mastering by Chris „Zeuss“ Harris
- Record deals are only signed in blood
BONDED BY BLOOD!

Tracklist

1. Zest Of Scorn (3:43)
2. Knuckleburger (3:13)
3. Concrete Jungle (4:11)
4. You're A Cancer To This World (2:56)
5. Blazing Heat (3:27)
6. T.M.N.A. (1:58)
7. Bird Of Prey (4:15)
8. Nyctophobia (4:40)
9. Slam Tornado (3:38)
10. I Never Denied (Excel Cover) (4:50)

Luxembourg, anno 2010, just when puberty truly struck and thrash metal was the bee's knees, was when Fusion Bomb went through nuclear fission and saw the light of day. Puberty has mostly faded these days, but the genre is still as relevant. As is tradition, the first few years were spent jamming and drinking beer together, before work on the first EP, entitled „Pravda“, started. Due to the band's interest in the history of the Soviet Union, they chose it as the central lyrical and musical theme for their first output.

Being a young and motivated thrash metal band, there is certainly nothing more enticing as being on stage, which is why Fusion Bomb didn't stand around to wait for their fortune, but instead played the crap out of stages of all sizes, because we all know that small stages need lovin' too. Inspired by the concept of their first release, the band also thrashed through the Eastern Bloc on a beer-fueled adventure.

There's no time to look back though, since hell awaits: 2018 will see a second invasion of the Eastern Bloc in a thrash metal crusade. But that's not the end of it either, as Denmark, Austria, France and Germany will also be eviscerated by thundering riffs and double bass attacks. While the only way to truly satisfy the quartet's ego is by booking a tour in Japan, a deal with you guys would be almost as good.

Miguel Teixeira Sousa – Guitar/Vocals
Luc „Lanthanoid Lazer-Dazer“ Bohr – Guitar
Michel „Nippel“ Remy – Bass/Vocals
Scott Kutting – Drums

www.facebook.com/fusionbomb.lux
www.artistecard.com/fusionbomb
www.instagram.com/fusionbomb
fusionbombofficial@gmail.com