

MENTIONS AND REVIEWS

“Allow me to introduce to you my new friends ‘Softwave’ whom I met at my former Human League bandmate Ian Burdens solo album release event in London recently ... Softwaves pure and clean electro sound with a cool techno edge, featuring the delightful voice of Catrine Christensen...”

Jo Callis (ex- Human League)

“Still awake . . . and listening.

It stirs up my long-standing adoration of analogue-synth purity. And I wish I could sing like that! x”

Ian Burden (ex- Human League)

“Softwave’s excellent new album is most definitely worth a listen. Excellent production and vocals from Denmarks finest synth pop band.”

Chris Payne (ex- Gary Numan, Dramatis, Visage, Dead or Alive)

SOMETHING FOR THE WEEKEND: SOFTWAVE COVER ERASURE'S 'SIREN SONG'

Danish electronic duo Softwave launched their new album, 'Game On', in Copenhagen a couple of weeks ago, and their performance that night included an added bonus in the shape of a beautiful cover of Erasure's 'Siren Song', which also features Copenhagen's Elektrokor choir. Thanks to everyone who sent me the link to this one (there were quite a lot of you!), and enjoy the performance. If you like it then Softwave's 'Game On' album is also well worth checking out, and lets send a little respect to Softwave singer Catrine Christensen for her excellent choice of performance t-shirt! Have a brilliant weekend.

Erasure. Always.

CHEERS!

Richard
