

SHUMKING MANSION

Psychedelic Dance Rock

"Love. War. Paranoia. Escape. Rogue robots. Flash floods. All things to be confronted by dancing until near-collapse in the world of Shumking Mansion. A furnace-blast of technicolor noise levelled straight to the back of the brain, Shumking's live shows are high-speed anarchy. From all four corners of a convincing simulation of Earth--but forever representing Hong Kong--Zaid, Kent, Shum and Jem are on a mission to seize the present and point it like a hand-cranked laser gun at an unforgiving future"
