Groovy, phat, emotional and unique. A powerful voice with a lot of details and diversity – That's the debut EP from Miricalls: Dare To Be You!

The local press describes Miricalls as „the new British-pop hope of Stuttgart“ and „A very go-getting young female singer in whom besides the voice the flexibility strikes. From the minimalist acoustic combo up to a 9-headed band!“ New music from Germany.

The radio station bigFM portrays Miricalls songs with the following words:

“A dynamic sound hits on a unique voice! Profound lyrics with natural expressiveness complement the catchy sound of her music perfectly and provides for a rich art. In her home country Miricalls is already more than just an insider – and this was only the beginning!“

Enjoying, clapping and singing alone – Miricalls inspires the audience and fully fascinates them with her own written song. For her writing songs is like writing an emotional diary. These skills she loves to demonstrate during songwriting camps (i.a. the historical Hansastudios-Songwritingcamp with Meisel Music Company).

Miricalls played in 2017 more than 50 gigs. In 2018, she will be on tour for her new single release and gladly available for any interviews.

„There can be Miricalls when you believe.“ – Miricalls
