

DARKO

'SERIOUS rippers' – DyingScene.com

'Techy skate-punk for fans of Belvedere and Strung Out' – Rock Sound

'No false pretences, no pandering to an audience, it's simply riff after riff' - Punktastic

Darko are a five-piece frenzy of hi-octane melodic hardcore punk, with the ability to bring the party to life, both on and off stage.

Darko are respected for their incendiary live shows, which has enabled them to build a passionate fanbase across the globe. Although they hail from the leafy suburbs of Guildford, any weekend will find them making festival appearances around Europe, supporting bands like A Wilhelm Scream, H2O, Strung Out, Frank Turner, Jaya The Cat, Gnarwolves, or touring as far afield as Japan and Australia.

Their critically acclaimed debut album, Bonsai Mam- moth, was released on Lockjaw Records and Bird Attack records in February 2017, following a series of themed EPs, including Sea of Trees and From Trust To Conformity.

Bonsai Mammoth is an album that's packed full of all the satisfying choruses, mosh-pit moments and gang-vocal sing-a-longs that you'd expect from a fun-filled Darko live performance. Expect layers of mind-bending, racing guitars above impactful songwriting, a heart-racing, versatile rhythm section, and Dan Smith's signature coarse vocal delivery.
