JAZZ | WORLD | BRAZIL

ABOUT

Paiva Video Portrait

The composer, drummer, and percussionist, who has worked with many greats of the music world over the course of his more than 30-year career, will fill the stage with a show that is soaked with melodies and rhythms from all corners of Brazil and Africa. They are inspired by jazz and classical music. Paiva is described by critics as one of the great Brazilian drummers of the present. His combination of percussive vocal solos, body percussion and drums make him, rhythmically blessed, an outstanding figure in the Brazilian music scene.

Born in 1965 in Porto Alegre, Brazil, Fernando Paiva composer, drummer, percussionist, showman and music producer is considered by the Brazilian and Brazilian press as one of the main exponents of Brazilian drumming in the world.

As drummer and percussionist he created a unique style of playing his instrument mixing percussive vocals, percussion and drums. Based in Vienna, Fernando founded his group „Fernando Paiva Group“ in 1999 to play his own compositions.

In his compositions Fernando drinks from the sources of Brazilian music, jazz, African music, classical music to create a unique mix. Inspired melodies, elaborate arrangements, rich and engaging rhythms are the hallmark of his work as a composer.

In addition to his teaching activities at different music universities, Fernando has a long international career playing live or in studios with: Joe Zawinul Syndicate, Lionel Ritchie, Sertab Erener, Alegre Correa, Vienna Art Orchestra, Raul de Souza, Chris Jagger among many others.

Trio, created and led by Fernando Paiva with his compositions but with a Special Touch from Turkey.

Sabri Tulug Tirpan is one of the great names of today's Turkish piano. He is an extremely virtuous musician who is at home both in jazz, Brazilian music, classical music, world music and obviously in the music of his country Turkey. Composer of Symphonies, soundtracks for movies, classical music, also develops his own work alongside the big names in jazz. Sabri currently plays in the group of superstar percussionist Trilok Gurtu and is constantly on Tourne with different projects.

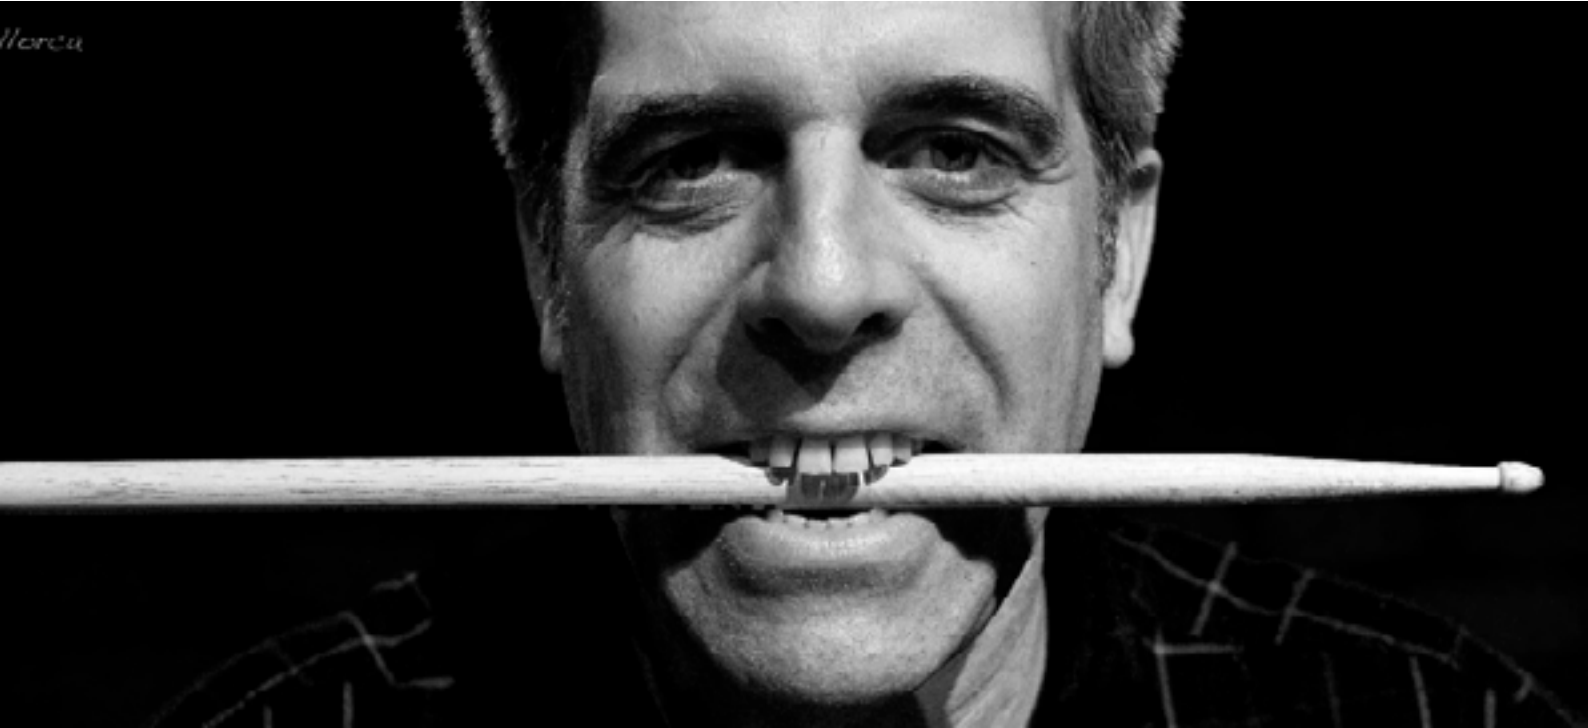

Matheus Nicolaiewsky is one of the big names of the new generation of Brazilian bassists.. He transitions between the electric bass and the double bass with fluency, versatility and musicality in a vast range of musical strands. His unique way of playing the bass has made him highly requested for works as a side-man and soloist in the European jazz scene as well as worldwide.

VOCAL & BODY PERCUSSION - WORKSHOP

In this master class topics such as body and vocal percussion, rhythmic syllables, rhythmic phrases, basic techniques that are suitable for all percussion instruments are addressed in a very free and relaxed environment. We also learn to play percussion instruments that students choose before the course starts. Working with the body will also be part of this workshop, exploring the body and objects as instruments that will later be integrated into our performances.
