INTRODUCING – FANGCLUB

November 16, 2013

Another one track band to make its way into my inbox this week. Fangclub hail from Dublin and draw a clear influence from Queens of the Stone Age and early 90's garage rock.

I can find myself growing tired of growing number of guitar bands finding their way into my inbox but sometimes I just want to rock out to something charged. Fangclub have provided me with just that at just the right time.
