

Blues In The South

Strange Ways - Razor Edge Records released on 24 September 2019.

IMHO this is a stunner and their best work to date. The album consists of a very generous 14 tracks, all except one, wisely dedicated to the whole band as writers. The band is tight and well drilled and the enthusiasm shows in every note. A very generous 14 track album including Rock Star Status, which has its place already as an arena opener, The Well, which has a ZZ Top feel to it and the excellent Dance Of the Dead.

All in all a funky mix of old rock and roll and rockabilly with a dash of blues and soul.

Outstanding.
