

ROBB MURPHY

Robb Murphy is an Irish singer-songwriter whose journey has taken him far and wide to hone his craft as a master storyteller. Robb's solo career began with the recording of his internationally acclaimed debut album Take A Stand, officially released in April 2012. His 2nd studio album, Sleep Tonight launched in March of 2015 and has kept him busy with Radio, TV and live performances. Recent successes include a variety of sessions, festivals and competitions; 6 successful tours of The Netherlands, a tour of Germany, a feature on BBC Two, The Arts Show, feature on BBC's 'Love In A Day' documentary, 'Track of the Day' – Hot Press, appearances at the Belfast-Nashville Songwriters Festival and headlining Copenhagen Songwriters Festival to name but a few.

The rhythmic undercurrent of Robb Murphy's music entices his audience to join him on a journey of traditional Irish storytelling punctuated throughout with elements of pop, country, classical and folk. His music illustrates personal memories along with the varied stories of his native Northern Ireland. Robb has the unique ability to transport his listener into his musical world with a combination of stunning acoustics, sublime vocals and heartfelt lyrics.

"Robb Murphy is a real talent. His songs are melodic and magical. He writes from the heart and the results are spellbinding."

Ralph McClean - BBC Radio Ulster

"In Robb Murphy you have a singer that expresses his thoughts through song in a way that many try but come up short of the mark. Strong melodies backed by assured lyrics give Robb a fighting chance of survival in a tough industry" Roddie Cleere – KCLR 96 FM

"I've followed Robb Murphy for a few years now and I just love his music. His lyrics and arrangements are just what a listener loves to hear. Robb is going to be around for a long time" Paul McDevitt – Highland Radio
