THE DANSE SOCIETY
REINVENTING DARKNESS SINCE 1980

Celebrating 40 years with 7th album 'Sailing Mirrors'

Post-punk legends The Danse Society are celebrating 40 years across Europe with 7th album 'Sailing Mirrors' soon out.

This year sees the 40th Anniversary of The Danse Society and in true Danse Society tradition, the band continue to reinvent darkness boldly with a completely new twist.

Founder member guitarist Paul Nash still leads the band, which regenerated 9 years ago with female lead singer Maeth. Why? Because no male singer could be compared to Steve Rawlings and The Danse Society have never been a band to restrain in a box. The band never reformed to be an impersonation of its past.

Fast forwarding, three Albums receiving critical acclaim, introduced on BBC6 Radio as the best the band ever sounded, touring in Finland, Belgium, Netherlands, Portugal, Italy and the US, long time and new Dansers are enjoying classics such as "Danse Move", "Somewhere" and "We're so happy" juxtapose with the more recent "If I were Jesus" and tracks from the new album like "Kill u later" "Valerio's Theme" and "We fall".

The wall of sound never lies.

"The best the band ever sounded" BBC6 RADIO "A glimpse into a dark group imagination. The power to come across and really kick you in the chest" YORKSHIRE COAST GIGS "Recalls me Siouxsie & The Banshees of the "Hyena" period mixed with the Killing Joke of songs like 'Money Is Not Our God'... yeah, that good" NOISE BRIGADE "Retaining Maethelyiah's dreamy vocals as its focal point, 'VI' inevitably sounds closer to the Society we've known since the 2011 reunion, with the title seemingly chosen to underscore a sense of its continuity (it's their 6th release)" VIVE LE ROCK "They honestly believed they were the undead, I thought it was charming" ROBERT SMITH (THE CURE)
