BIOGRAPHY

A self-taught musician with a unique playing and writing style, Mock Deer has spent the majority of his life in the North of England and has re-immersed himself in the capital's Alt-folk scene over recent years, playing shows for many of the best local promoters and touring both in the UK and Europe. As well as writing original music for theatre and television he has released two EPs, 'Cold and Bright' and 'How We Used to Live'

Mock Deer's renewed involvement in the live music scene has seen him play shows supporting great acts such as The Burning Hell (Can), Rainbrother (DK), Sam Brookes (UK) and Kristin McClement (UK) as well as appearing at several UK festivals, including numerous performances at Festival N6, Wilderness Festival, Ramsbottom Festival, The End & Uncivilization Festival.

Mock Deer has just finished recording his debut album with producer Scott Fitzgerald. The album, 'The Art of Loneliness', promises to be something special and is set for release on 14 February 2020. It will be followed by a UK and European Album tour.
