

THE AMSTERDAMMERS

BIOGRAPHY

The Amsterdammers is an indie pop/rock band formed in 2015 and based in Madrid.

The sound of The Amsterdammers is composed by the influence of its five members: Marcos Villanueva (main voice and ukulele), Santiago Martínez (keys), Álvaro Villanueva (bass), Pablo Villanueva (drums) and Conrado Álvarez (guitar). The Amsterdammers style moves from early 2000 mainstream indie-rock to post-punk, going through surf pop melodies and folk reminiscences.

Its first EP was published in January 2017 under the name of Early Twenties. With this first work the band have been touring around national concert halls and festivals. Among them it can be emphasized its participation in Mad Cool Festival 2017.

In May 2018, the band published its second EP, Things We All Should Know, a chant about live and specially intended to the people that are still listening.

The Amsterdammers is currently touring in Spain immersed in the presentation tour of its last work. They are already presenting the work on the stages all over different festivals like Sonorama Ribera 2018.
