Ed JAMES' album Rita's Cantina is a mix of Rock, pop, folk, a tinge of country, a touch of samba-mambo, blended with a hint of flamenco.

Ed, lead a very different life until recently. The death of his lifelong friend Dave Black (Goldie, Spiders from Mars) was the catalyst for change, when Ed turned his back on a successful career: from Multi-National C.E.O to Muso.

Ed James has much to offer. The metamorphosis complete, Ed James is an accomplished singer-songwriter/musician, with a highly original sound.

Rita's Cantina -Songs from the heart & the head

Rita's Cantina is a collection of 14 compositions, from Ed's back-catalogue of around 200 songs, written over 30 years.

Rita's Cantina - title track an endearing, personal memory of a the wonderful buvette in St Antonie Bay, Ed visited with his wife, Joan. Accessed by water taxi from their frequent holiday destination.

Caroline's Colours - is the tale of a young girl's disappointment and rebirth, with a very happy ending

Fallen Hero - we are often disappointed when people don't live up to our often-unfair expectations

Broken Bridges - when a future so real dissolves before your eyes and the bridge that carried you home, now takes you away.

Dust It On Down

Dust it All Down - The tragedy of the prodigious talent, his stage forsaken. Will he find that guiding-light back to glory?

Learn to Fly (again)

Learn To Fly (again) - finding the strength to rebuild after defeat

Rolling On - Time for change; your reality is far from nirvana. A critical step in the metamorphosis

Devil's Sentry - we all have a nemesis, the inescapable agency of downfall; odds stacked, the outcome inevitable.

The Bins are Thumpin'

Nostalgia: the return to a place of adolescent enlightenment to find a very different "mis en scene"

This Sweet Life of Mine

- bombshell; momentous disruption to life's sweet pattern

Somebody Stole Our Dream

- once an impossible magical dream, now withered and lost.

When Saturday Comes Around

*the biggest gig of the week,
what every self-respecting Muso looks forward to.
Inspired by the death of my friend Dave Black*
